

BETRAYED:

WHY DID TERRI AUSTIN BREAK HER VOW TO DEFEND MARRIAGE?

WHY? Why did Rep. Terri Austin pledge she would vote FOR the Marriage Protection Amendment during her campaign then BETRAY voters last week who believed her?

WHY? Why did she vote for the exact same amendment in 2005, campaign on it in 2006, but never express opposition until it got close to letting voters decide?

WHY? Why did she claim to have talked with everyone she knew but NEVER talked even once with the marriage amendment's author?

"In any case, the text of SJR 7 is so substantially different from that of Ohio's marriage amendment, we are confident Indiana courts will not misinterpret the intent of the legislature with regard to domestic violence protection."

From a legal opinion by the Marriage Law Foundation which was hand-delivered to Rep. Austin's office on March 23, 2007, and emailed to her on the same day, nearly two weeks before her vote against Hoosier citizens who want a vote on defending marriage.

WHY? Why did she claim tearful concern about domestic violence when she had a clear legal opinion to the contrary (see inset) that the amendment would not effect domestic violence victims?

WHY? Why did she appear to support marriage only to be cynically used by Democrat leadership who clearly don't want Indiana citizens to vote on marriage?

WHY? Why would Terri Austin leave the very definition of marriage in the hands of activist judges rather than the hands of Hoosier voters?

ASK HER WHY SHE WON'T LET HOOSIERS VOTE TO PRESERVE MARRIAGE
